Charlottesville Authorities Slow.

Charlottesville Authorities Slow.

Ed Smith, colored, who was arrested several days ago charged with the killing of a negro in Charlottesville, was brought before Judge Woods yesterday on a habeas corpus. The judge refused to release him without first giving the Charlottesville authorities more time in which to send for him. He stated that unless they were heard from before 6 o'clock this evening that he would have to order Smith's release.

Addresses Wanted.

Owing to the fact that entertainment may not be secured for all the delegates to the Christian Endeavor Convention, H. A. Gillis, chairman of the entertainment committee, desires that all board-

The New Public Building.

A Washington special to the Richmond Times says: For some time past the Treasury Department has been concerned about the completion of the post office building at Roanoke, Va., and ac-tion was taken last week to hurry forward the work on the building. In-spector Roberts, of the supervising architect's office, was sent to Roanone to investigate the work being done by the contract. Mr. Roberts has returned to Washington, and in his report to the supervising architect he states that the contractors, E. A. Wilson & Co, are greatly behind in their work, and are not working up to the daily requirements of the contract. He points out a number of instances where work is being delayed, and recommends that some action be taken to hurry up the contractors. He states that Messrs. Wilson & Co. expect to complete the work by the lat of February, 1896.

Young Men's Christian Association.

The men's gospel meeting at Y. M. C. A. hall Sunday evening was one of the best held this season. The seating capacity of the hall was packed to the utmost. The address by Rev. W. F. Locke was given the closest attention. Locze was given the closest attention. The services next Sunday will be omitted, owing to the Christian Endeavor convention. The meeting at the West End building was very impressive. The attendance was larger than at any regular service for months, 180 being present. B. Lacy Hoge spoke from the subject, "Obedience," drawing the lesson of individual obligations.

One Woman Beaten by Another. One Woman Beaten by Another.

A free fight occurred between Ann Davis, white, and Mary Hann, colored, under the Randolph street bridge last night. The negro woman was arruck over the head with a bed slat and two ugly wounds were made. Each was cut to the skull and about four inches long. Dr. A. A. Cannaday, the city physician, was summoned, but owing to sickness was unable to attend. The wounded woman was taken to the office wounded woman was taken to the office of Dr. J. N. Death of Mrs. Randal.

Mrs. Randal, wife of J. N. Randal, an insurance agent of this city, died at their residence, 24 Third avenue n. e., yesterday evening at 6 o'clock of scute peritonitis. She was only sick six days and all that human skill and kindness could do to save her life was done. She leaves two small children, one a month old, the other nearly two years. The remains will be shipped to-day to her old home at Martinsburg, W. Va. The family had only been in this city about four months, and during that time have made many friends, who deeply sympathics with them in their great loss. thizs with them in their great loss.

Railroad Y. M. C. A. Entertainment.

The ladies' committee of the railroad department Y. M. C. A. began an oyster festival in the railroad building at the West End last night. The festival was largely attended considering the in-clemency of the weather. Excellent instrumental music on piano, guitar and mandolin was one of the features of the evening. J. L. Bonavits performed on the guitar and Howard Turner on the mandolin. The featival will be con-tinued to-night and the entertainment will comprise recitations, readings, duets, solos and instrumental music beside the serving of oysters in every style, and ice cream and cake. THE BEST FAMILY MEDICINE

She Has Ever Known. Words of Praise from a New York Lady for

AYER'S PILLS

"I would like to add my testimony to that of others who have used Aver's Pills, and to say that I have taken them for many years, and always derived the best results from their use. For stomach and liver troubles, and for the cure of headache caused by these derangements, Ayer's Pills cannot be equaled.

When my friends ask me what is the best remedy for disorders of the stomach, liver, or bowels, my invariable answer is, Ayer's Pills. Taken in season, they will break up a cold, prevent la grippe, check fover, and regulate the digestive organs: They are easy to take, and are, indeed, the best all-round family medicine I have ever known."-Mrs. May Jounson, 368 Rider Avenue, New York City.
